

MIDDLE EAST NEWS

March 2, 2021

Global Situational Awareness

Major news in the Middle East this week was highlighted by a possible terror-related explosion aboard an Israeli-owned cargo ship, additional Houthi missile attacks on Saudi Arabia, and U.S. strikes against Iran-backed militia in Syria. Other news topics included Iran's rejection of informal nuclear talks, protests in Lebanon, and other social and political updates around the region.

Babel Channels provides breaking news and topic specific coverage for countries throughout the Middle East, enhancing awareness and insight into important events such as terror attacks, military engagements, diplomatic affairs, refugee issues, civil unrest, COVID-19 updates, and various geopolitical developments. Some of this noteworthy material that Babel Channels recently illuminated follows:

With coverage in more than 350 countries, states, territories, and cities around the world and the ability to help users understand developments in more than 200 languages, Babel Channels is your tool to understand what is happening in particular regions such as the Middle East. Babel Street persistently canvasses a dynamic array of global information on the topic and presents pertinent material in Babel Channels.

Analysis is based on information derived from publicly or commercially available data sources. Babel Street expresses no representations, warranties, or assurances on the accuracy of the publicly available data but has used analytical rigor in generating its assessment.*